HOSPE BUYS COUNCIL BLUFFS MUSIC STOCK

Of Pianos and Organs from the Receiver at About Half Price and Will Give His Patrons the Benefit of the Discount.

The sale begins Monday. We have an offer to make to our patrons and the buying public generally that will interest every one who is in need of a piano now, or those who may be contemplating the purchase of an instrument within the next few years.

The Council Bluffs Music Co., doing business at 17 Main St., Council Bluffs, Ia., carried a fine line of pianos, in fact it is said the principal reason for the sale lay in the fact that the stock they carried was too fine for their trade and they could not compete with the cheaper class of goods.

We bought all their stock, as the following receipt will show, and at a price that we can save our customers at least 40 per cent in the purchase of a piano.

Received of A. Hospe, four thousand, three hundred and sixty-two ($4,362.00) dollars in full and complete settlement for the Council Bluffs Musical Co. stock of pianos, organs, stools, seats and small musical goods.

In order to please and to give every one the same opportunity to purchase either a piano or an organ at this genuine reduction of 40 per cent we have concluded to inaugurate a sale, beginning Monday, the 22nd, and continuing for two weeks and no longer.

We have rented temporarily the building, 1515 Douglas, where the sale will be held, and have put all the Council Bluffs stock in this room, and from the regular and established price a reduction of 30 to 40 per cent will be given during this sale.

Do you realize what this means? Beautiful $225 pianos less 40 per cent make them cost you $135. Twenty dollar cash, $8.00 per month buys them.

Two hundred and fifty dollar pianos for $150.

Two hundred and seventy-five dollar pianos for $165, and so on up to $500 pianos; this 30 to 40 per cent discount will be given, and this will bring the prices down to less than wholesale prices.

Under no circumstances could these prices be made if it were not for the fact that we brought this Council Bluffs stock at a sacrifice.

You can't afford to miss this sale. You will be looking for holiday presents soon. If you buy a piano now we will store it free till Christmas.

Only a limited number of these bargains. Twenty to twenty-five dollars cash, $7 to $10 per month, buys any piano on the floor.

For further particulars and to secure good choice call early Monday and see the stock. Store open nights.

A. HOSPE, 1515 Douglas St., Omaha, Neb.

The New Ceylon Coffee. There is always something new—now it's a testing place for the ladies of Omaha—after the fatigue of holiday shopping you could be more delightful than a cozy little room and a delicious cup of coffee?

The Omaha Tea and Coffee company will, at their new store, 1407 D street, commencing Monday, serve to all callers new and delicious beverage, Ceylon coffee—you know what Ceylon tea is; well, this is Ceylon tea, only it's coffee—real pure Ceylon coffee—there's not an orchard, but the store will be prettily decorated, and there will be ample accommodations for all visitors.

It is in the intention of this coffee firm to continue this unique service until after the holidays—each week the bill of fare, or rather the beverage, will be changed. Cocoa will be served with the different grades of their well known coffees. It may be worthy of note to say that only the Oriental coffee pot will be used in preparing these beverages, and that the different grades of elegant opportunity of testing the merits of this, the greatest of all coffee pots, as well as the quality of the coffee on sale by this firm. An earnest invitation is extended not only to the Omaha ladies to call and enjoy their hospitality and a refreshing cup of their coffee, but also to the gentlemen of South Omaha, Council Bluffs or any one visiting our city.

The up-to-date housekeeper uses Wheatling. Don't forget the sick and worthy poor of our benevolent citizens for donations of soutry, meats, provisions, warm clothing and shoes for distributions among the stock, aged and deserving poor. Drop a postal card or telephone 1846 not later than 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and our workers will call. JOHN LAUGHLIN, Secretary. THOMAS L. KIMBALL, President.

UNDER WHEELS OF A MOVING CAR.

Willie Messick the Victim of a Serious Accident.

Willie Messick, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Messick, was thrown from a Sherman motor car at 5 o'clock last night and his foot, which caught under the wheel, was badly crushed. The child and his father were on their way home to 1609 Kyner avenue when the accident occurred. The cars were overcrowded and they were standing on the back platform of the front car. Seeing a vacant seat in the trailer, Mr. Messick started to cross to that car, holding the child's hand. At this moment the train turned from Sixteenth onto Cuming street and the boy was thrown from the car. Before the wheel had passed over young Messick's left foot, he was taken to a neighboring hotel and later removed to his home, as is feared by the physician that the foot will have to be amputated.

A similar accident happened to William Messick, the 15-year-old water boy of a Union Pacific section gang, yesterday afternoon. The men were working under the Tenth street viaduct and the foreman sent the boy on an errand on the tracks. A switch engine was passing and the boy secured a seat on the step in front. Reaching his destination, he tried to spring to the ground, but his coat caught on a projecting bar. The boy was thrown, his feet and a wheel finally passed over his foot. The big toe was nearly amputated and his body was badly bruised.

Hansen Had a Happy Time. Henry Hansen, while acting under the stimulus of whisky, went into Jensen's saloon at Fourteenth and Cass streets, and drawing a rusty old revolver, told the proprietor that he had a message for him. Hansen was unceremoniously thrown into the street, and after a while he picked himself up and sent him to the police station. Hansen was discharged by Judge Gordon on a promise that he would depart and sin no more.

A complaint charging larceny from the person has been filed in police court against Kittle Owens, Adelle Frazer and Hawk Wells at the instance of George Eler, alias Fred Russell, who alleges the women took $110 from him.

The death of A. B. Van Cott, at New Rochelle, N. Y., is announced by the press of Milwaukee, where the deceased was a prominent business circles for many years. His son, D. W. Van Cott, well known in Omaha, now resides in Chicago.

S. L. Boyd, who was injured in a runaway accident Thursday afternoon and lying dangerously ill at the Presbyterian hospital, was reported in practically the same condition yesterday. The physicians have a faint hope of saving him, but it is doubtful.

Otis Smith and Charles Traycraft got into a dispute over private matters near Tenth and Davenport streets, and Smith, pulling a knife, struck Traycraft. Traycraft crossed the forehead with it. A wound which required several stitches resulted. Smith was arrested.

Frank Bromacke, charged with criminal libel by John J. Delone, was bound over to district court in $700 bonds. The trial of Bromacke was held in police court last Thursday, and Judge Gordon, who has had the case under advisement, rendered his decision yesterday.

William Maier, proprietor of a building near Nineteenth and Jackson streets, reported to the police that thieves had just removed about 400 feet of lumber from the structure. He gave a description of a colored man who has been seen hanging around the place on several occasions. The police took the material.

Sheriff Plunkett of Lawrence county, South Dakota, is in the city looking for William Moore, Frank and Tom Jones, the three accused of murder, and who broke jail on October 31. There were five men who escaped from the jail by overpowering the jailer, but two of them have been captured.

J. S. Gordon, enroute from western points to his home in Sheridan, Ia., was flung from a train at 8:30 by an effable stranger whom he met on the train yesterday. The stranger asked him to change a couple of bills and after the new friend departed Gordon found he was less in the amount named. The loss was reported to the local police. Gordon continued on his journey.

R. W. Johnson of the Delone is short one overcoat as the result of a sneak thief's nerve. He and a friend went to the Creighton hotel last night and took the material. They moved their coats and were in the act of putting their hats under the seats, when two men, with unparalleled nerve, seized the coats and fled. Johnson's friend managed to secure a firm grip on his coat and retained it, but Mr. Johnson lost his coat in the scuffle.

HOPES TO STOP THE STEALING

Female Robbers Come Under the Ban of Law at Last.

Seven of the Most Notorious Women Arrested and Committed to Prison for Assistance in the Prosecutions.

The police have made an effort to stop the promiscuous thieving conducted by women of the town district, placing under arrest Kittle Owens, Stella Green, Mamie Brown, Eva Hicks, Bertha Lewis, Annie Neel, and Alice Gray. They are all Captain Mostyn with vagrancy, and in a letter to Prosecuting Attorney Miller it is requested that he ask the county attorney to file information against them under the state law.

This move was made by the police as a last resort to punish these offenders against the law in view of the fact that they have been able to evade the law for many months past. Under the city ordinances such women are liable to arrest and punishment in fines not exceeding $100 or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days. In the cases brought before Judge Gordon no convictions have been made of the women, and the police magistrate that the information were faulty and that any sentence he might impose could not be sustained. Notwithstanding these things, the prosecutor issued information yesterday on the same models which he has done in the past. The women were arraigned upon them and a hearing set for next Tuesday.

The police assert that when prosecution is conducted along lines pursued by the city attorney the work of the police department is fruitless. The courts have been taken in the past shows that they are set for a hearing from time to time and are at length dismissed without any punishment being administered to the prisoners. This result the police assert emboldens the criminal classes and that the authority of the arresting officer is taken from him.

Friday four cases of larceny from men, the person came up for trial in police court, but were continued on request of the defendants. Among the number arrested that night, Alice Green, Stella Green, Kate Green, Bertha Lewis were out on bail on the charges of larceny from the person upon which they were again admitted to bail. They were again admitted to bail, and they have fled and are obliged to hang around the station and await trials which in many instances never occur.

When Captain Haze held a consultation with Assistant County Attorney Winter and asked that information be filed against the women under the state law. The penalty provided by these statutes inflicts a fine of not to exceed $100 or confinement in the county jail for not more than ninety days. Assistant County Attorney Winter, in the agency of the case, agreed to file complaints against the offenders under the state law, and in the event of dismissal of the charges under the city ordinances, the women will again be brought to trial upon the last named information.

D. H. Hackett, a farmer from Vall, Ia., was robbed of $20 yesterday in the house of Adelle Frazer, Twelfth and Capitol avenue. The circumstances of the case did not vary from any of the numerous other cases of that kind which have been reported within the last few days. The women of this locality seem to have little fear of the law, for while Hackett was in the house, while the women Captain Haze held a consultation with Assistant County Attorney Winter and asked that information be filed against the women under the state law.
